9. Space Limitations:

Your space is just for your table and setup. If you are bringing extra tables, racks, or shelving, please let us know so we can arrange for additional space.

10. Respect Your Space:

Please ensure your setup doesn't extend into walkways or other vendor spaces. If you need extra room, consider booking an additional spot.

11. Be Well-Stocked:

Make sure your table is well-stocked with your products for the event. We want to make sure you have everything you need to shine!

12. Fees:

Please note that all fees are non-refundable, as they help cover venue costs and event promotion.

13. Raffle Basket Contribution:

We invite you to contribute a product (minimum $10 value) to our raffle basket. It's a great way to promote your business! Include your business card or contact info with your prize so customers can reach out to you. To be included, please share your product with me no later than March 21st.

14. List Your Items:

Please list all items you plan to sell. This helps us ensure a good variety of products and avoid overlaps with other vendors.

15. Application Changes:

If you need to make changes to your application after it's been approved, just let us know so we can make the necessary adjustments.

16. Responsibility:

We're not responsible for lost, damaged, or stolen items. Please take care to secure your materials.

17. Insurance:

We highly recommend that vendors and healers have their own insurance for added peace of mind.

18. Important Note:

To ensure you're fully informed and can take advantage of all the vendor opportunities, please note that joining our Facebook group is required once your application has been accepted.

Additionally, to be featured in our vendor spotlights, please submit your spotlight information no later than March 21st.

19. Attendance:

To maintain the vibrancy and professionalism of our market, we kindly ask that all vendors remain for the full duration of the event.

Early departures leave empty tables, which can affect the overall experience for attendees and fellow vendors. Thank you for your cooperation and commitment to a successful market!
